DERRY PUBLIC LIBRARY

LIBRARIAN'S REPORT

To the Trustees of the Derry Public Library:

The 39th annual report is herewith presented:

Routine work has been carried on as usual. We regret to say our circulation has taken another drop this year. Books on the war and post-war world seems to be in great demand. So far we have been able to supply them.

Books have been wearing out rapidly and although many more than usual have been repaired a great many have had to be discarded as being too dirty and worn.

The number of books missing from our shelves is a little higher than last year. The easy rules of the library should do away with this habit of taking books without having them checked at the desk.

A summer reading club was organized as a Book Army, 42 children signed up as either a private or apprentice seaman, 22 finished and received diplomas (or honorable discharge). Jimmy Hodgdon and Irene Muzzey receiving highest rank, with 45 books apiece to their credit. Chuckle or joke books and war scrap-books were among the requirements. These books were on display in the library at the end of the summer.

Last year Book-Week was featured as an Author-Illustrator exhibit. Many illustrations from the pen of famous author-illustrators of children's books were mounted and displayed. Letters and photographs helped to make it more interesting. This proved so interesting that this year we found it possible to carry out the same idea only in another way. Miss Lois Lenski, author-illustrator was invited to visit us on Thursday, November 18. Mr. Parkinson cooperated with us and the school children were assembled in the Adams Memorial Hall to meet their first real live author. Miss Lenski held their attention by telling them stories about her book characters. At the close of the afternoon the children presented her with an orchid, in appreciation of her visit to them.

The evening was given over to the teachers and parents who were interested in hearing Miss Lenski speak about her work. The 7th grade entertained the group by presenting the puppet play, "Blueberry Corners". This was adopted from one of her books by the same title. An informal reception followed the entertainment of the evening.

An essay contest was the Junior High's contribution to Book-Week. Mrs. Alice Campbell, Miss Sylvia Clark and Rev. David Jack were judges. Prizes were given to Josephine Yeronis, first of the 8th grade, Raymond Caron the winner in the 7th grade. Honorable mention went to the following students: 8th grade—Roland Demers, Albert Pickering; 7th grade—Judith Gibbs and Barbara Gardner. These essays were read during the evening program.

Much war material has been available from the War Information Dept., book lists and posters have been used from the Council on books in war time. This literature has been very helpful in making our war book selections. Posters have been displayed to help in all the war drives during the year.

The State Library loaned us an interesting display of art reproductions. These pictures received much favorable comment by our patrons.

The Author-Illustrator exhibit of last year's Book-Week was borrowed by Miss Etta Merrill and Mrs. Martha Moore of the West Side School to be shown at Keene college summer school. It was later loaned to the Plymouth Teachers' College for display during their Book-Week program.

The Derry Garden club furnished the decorations for the library during the Christmas holidays. Mrs. Ethel Campbell having charge of the arrangements.

Books have been loaned to the schools for outside reading. Also a group of books have been kept at the Report Center for the entertainment of the watchers. This service has been appreciated very much by the volunteers.

Red Cross meetings have been held in the library also the Executive Board of the Woman's club have held their meetings here.

Hours at the library were changed for the months of January and February. The library closing at 8:00 every night except Saturday this closes at 8:30. This change was made to conserve on coal and electricity.

Our first Doll Show was held during the week of Jan. 24-29. It was a great success. Fifty-two people entered dolls with a grand total of 225 dolls being shown during the week. Mrs. Virginia Woodbury, Mrs. Katherine MacKenzie from Canobie Lake and Miss Ruth Whittier from the State Library, Concord, loaned their dolls. The latter gave a very interesting talk to a group of friends and children.

Several sets of Informative pictures have been added during the year and are a valuable addition to our library. We hope to fill in a few more of this type of material during the coming year.

We wish to thank the D. A. R. for loaning us the Ocean-born-Mary wedding dress silk for Book-Week, to all those who helped make our Doll Show a success, to Mrs. Helen Hood and Mrs. Hazel Patten for books given to the children's room, to the New Hampshire Library Commission for the book on meteorology for aviators and also the Newspapers for giving the library publicity in all its activities of the year.

Administration and Organization

Derry schools felt the impact of the teacher shortage to much lesser degree in the summer of 1943 than it did the preceding year. There were but two changes in the teaching staff and one transfer.

Mr. Irvin Gordon requested a release from his contract to accept a position as headmaster of Marlborough (N. H.) High School.

Mrs. Clara DeStefano resigned at the end of the school year.

Mr. Henry Hastings, principal of Pelham Jr. High School, accepted the position as principal of the Junior High School. He had previous experience in several New Hampshire communities.

Miss Ruth Napier, a graduate of Lowell Teachers' College accepted the position of music supervisor.

Mrs. Lillian Brown and Miss Rachel Kendrick exchanged positions. Miss Brown took the first grade at Oak St. and Miss Kendrick the second grade at West Side.

Upon the death of Mr. James Egan whose loyal and efficient service was a source of great satisfaction to the school district for many years the position of janitor at Oak St. School was filled by the selection of Mr. Louis Gagne.

Mr. Willis Chase accepted appointment as truant officer for the duration when Howard Campbell entered the service.

The town and school district are fortunate that so few personnel changes have taken place during a war period. The loyal service of teachers and other personnel has enabled the schools to continue to offer educational opportunities to all pupils despite pressures of varied war time activities.

The following teachers attended summer school:

Miss Effie Plante	Keene
Miss Mabel Plante	Mt. St. Mary's
Miss Etta Merrill	Keene
Mrs. Martha Moore	Keene
Mr. Henry Hastings	Keene
Miss Eleanor Long	Boston University
Miss Patricia Royal	Boston University
Mrs. Dorothy Parker	Boston University

That so many teachers have evidenced an interest in professional advancement in war times is a praiseworthy commentary on the attitude of the whole teacher personnel.

Instruction

The pupils were tested in accord with the usual program. Test results were satisfactory. As is usual there were several pupils who were well above grade standard. There are also those whose academic achievement is not consistent with their grade placement. Grade placement is however determined by several criteria and in every case of questionable placement the paramount issue is to so place a pupil that he or she may benefit to the greatest extent.

In order that the greatest benefit may accrue to every pupil, class room libraries are being built up so that all types of interests, aptitudes and abilities may be reached.

New readers were purchased for several grades as basal texts and gradually our basic needs along this line are being met. A new arithmetic was introduced in the third grade as a beginning of the needed revision in this field. Sets of books for use in the social studies field and general science were added to the junior high supplementary books.

A continuance of the arithmetic revision and adding supplementary materials is part of the policy of the school department in providing adequate tools of learning for pupils and of instruction for teachers.

The tool subjects writing and spelling are the ones to which the efforts of the schools will be next directed.

The changes in geography texts, materials and methods must be scrutinized closely in the immediate future. The global nature of the present conflict has aroused public interest in place geography. New types of projection replacing the familiar "Mercator" projection of the world map are rapidly evolving. The use of new types of visual materials will become increasingly important. The changes however will not be made until such time as the evolutionary process has progressed.

to the point when purchases can be made with some degree of assurance that the most satisfactory solution of map making in light of present day condition has been found.

The program in physical education is being continued. As fast as conditions warrant it, a return to the program in effect prior to the war will be made. The program may of necessity be expanded after the war. There is an increased demand and pressure for such an expansion to remedy those defects which compulsory military service has revealed as existing. A positive program of physical education should be an asset in building the health of the children.

The music department has continued along the usual lines. The annual pageant presented in May was well received. The orchestra and school glee clubs enable many of the pupils to develop an interest in a worthwhile leisure time activity. The children of all the schools also presented a Christmas program which was a commendable performance.

The third annual Declamation contest by the Derry Junior High School was held Friday evening, May 21, 1943. Those taking part were Graydon Estabrook, Shirley Gordon, Dorcas Caron, Charles Audette, Robert Bertrand, Ramona Tinkham, Paul Curtis, Pauline Madden, Joseph Chesnakas, Lucille Gosselin, Jean MacKinnon and Shirley Pressey. Music was provided by a group from the Junior High.

The effect of a war time economy is apparent in the schools as in all other phases of our society. There are increased demands on pupil and teacher time for all sorts of war activity.

The sale of stamps and bonds as a regular weekly feature has resulted in a record of participation that is noteworthy. The total sales in 1942-43 were $9,385.90. The sales for the first five months of 1943-44 were $4,394.95. Although this activity consumes some time, it is part of teacher and pupil contribution to the war effort. It is developing habits of regular saving on the part of pupils which are valuable in all times.

The pupils have also contributed to the war effort by salvaging paper. Through the sale of these papers collected twice thus far during the year the pupils have accumulated a fund of $476.29 towards the purchase of auxiliary equipment when available. A sound motion picture projector will be added to the educational equipment of the schools through this fund.

In the fall the pupils of the Junior High School participated in the state wide effort of the schools to harvest the crops. Fruit and vegetables in the immediate vicinity were harvested by many school children. The additional help furnished in this manner was a valuable aid to the farmers and the food production program.

Repairs.

The policy of maintaining the physical plant in fine condition has been continued. The efficient and conscientious work of the janitors Messrs Guy Chadwick, Willis Chase and Louis Gagne makes it possible to keep the buildings in good repair. Special projects in the various schools were as follows:

FLOYD:

Complete refinishing and repair of room for use of music department.

Refinishing floors throughout the building.

Painting dado in corridors.

Painting four class rooms.

Painting basement and toilet floors.

WEST SIDE:

Painting two class rooms.

Painting dados in corridors.

Painting basement and toilet floors.

Refinishing floors throughout the building.
Painting outside porches. —
Repairing and refinishing class room closet.
Refinishing desks throughout the building.
Weather stripping windows of the north west corner of the building.

OAK STREET:

Building an office for use of building principal.
Painting rooms of junior high school.
Refinishing floors throughout the building.
Making a second exit from the first grade room.
Replacing stair treads.
Refinishing desks and furniture.
Reinforce floor in Home Economics room.
Painting wainscoating and woodwork in rooms.

The janitors in each building constantly are alert to minor repairs during the regular school sessions. Their alertness in checking minor repairs before they are serious is a means of great savings to the district.

School Lunches

The school department has continued to operate a hot lunch and milk program in cooperation with the Federal Department of Agriculture. The hot lunch program was extended to include all schools. A nominal charge is made and the district has had no expense to meet up to the present except for electricity and oil used in the preparation of the lunches. There have been 3,499 lunches served during the months of Dec. and Jan. The program will continue until the weather makes it possible to stop the program. In addition milk is served also at a nominal fee to all who desire it. This program is concurrent with the school year. Since it's inauguration there have been 94,005 half pints of milk served through January.

The Budget

The proposed budget shows a gross increase of $3,144.04. This seeming increase is largely confined to salary adjustments for all personnel. The reason that it is only a seeming increase is apparent when estimated income is studied. The great increase in income is due to one factor. The action of the state legislature in increasing the amount of state aid money available benefitted the Derry School District. The estimated cash on hand ($3000) is directly due to the increase for the present year since Derry's apportionment was increased $1757.50. In addition the anticipated continuance of such payment means an additional $2,000.00 income. These two factors of estimated income make it possible to show an estimated increase of $4,161 in income. This allows for a decrease in tax levy of $1,016.92.

Conclusion

The pupils of your schools are benefitting educationally because your teachers are adequately trained, are interested in perfecting their professional equipment, and are concerned with the development of each child physically, morally and mentally. The members of the school board are striving conscientiously to provide the teachers and pupils with the educational materials necessary to the greatest learning efficiency; to furnish wholesome, healthy, and pleasant physical surroundings, and to enhance in every way the opportunity for advancement of pupils to the highest degree. With these two groups motivated, as they both are, by the ideal of furnishing the pupils of the schools every possible opportunity for advancement it has been a pleasure for me to assist in every way possible the furtherance of such an ideal.

Everton H. Parkinson, Supt.

Organization and Administration

For the first time in seven years a change in teaching staff occurred at the Derry Village School. Mrs. Thelma Potter resigned after several years of efficient and loyal service. The district was fortunate to secure the services of Mrs. Frances Smith in her place. The work of the school has been maintained at its usual high level. Mrs. Follansbee, Mrs. Smith and Mr. Glidden have served the pupils and school district well in their several departments.

The usual policy of cleaning and repairing to keep the plant in fine physical condition was continued. An effort to make the building less difficult to heat and more comfortable for pupils in severe windy weather has been unavailing thus far. Lack of man power and materials has prevented work of caulking all windows to be completed. It is planned to do this work as soon as possible.

A study of the proposed budget reveals that there are slight increases in some items which are counterbalanced by decreases in other items so that the overall budget and tax levy remain at approximately the same figure. The situation at present is such that unless conditions change we can continue to operate at approximately this figure for a period of time. Tuition cost is the changeable item which will cause an increase or decrease. With increased enrollment in the primary room the effect of such enrollment will only be manifest when this increased enrollment advances to the upper grades.

As yet the school has felt the impact of war only slightly. Such effects are due to intangible factors as increased tension and tempo in our daily living. Books and school materials as yet are not different in quality than heretofore. The delivery of educational materials is slower due to transportation and quotas set up by W. L. B. on the manufacturers.

We are beginning however to note that certain restrictions as to paper weights for the manufacturer are beginning to effect quality in future deliveries.

The teachers and pupils are regularly conducting stamp sales. During the present year 19 pupils have purchased $84.95. In addition to supporting the war effort the habit of regular saving encouraged and developed by weekly sales is valuable in times of peace.

Book purchases have been confined to the primary room except for supplementary texts. The same situation exists here as does in the tuition costs. As the pupils advance the text book needs will change from grade to grade.

Conclusion

The educational facilities of the school have been maintained unimpaired during this war period. The teaching staff, the supplies, and the textbooks are up to the level of pre war standards. The statement of last year's report "we should maintain our public educational facilities at the customary level" is still appropriate and every effort will be expended to maintain the educational opportunities for the pupils of the school at the usual level.

I should be remiss if I did not acknowledge the fine cooperation from all concerned directly and indirectly with the functioning of your school.

Respectfully submitted,

Everton H. Parkinson
